PRICE, THREE CENTS

Davismen's Double Victory Over Telford Gives Them Philadelphia Suburban Crown

Heckle and Mulligan Wield Big Bats; Graham Scores Fifteenth Triumph.

DURBIN PITCHES SUNDAY

By John Uberti.

Manager Davis' Main Line champions closed the 1929 baseball season in auspicious style last Sunday at Telford when they annexed titular honors for the third consecutive time this year by lifting the widely-coveted Philadelphia Suburban crown from the mighty brows of the Telford Bisons, titleholders of the North Penn League. Howard Graham hurled his fifteenth win in Saturday's 5-1 triumph while "Bill" Durbin occupied the mound as the championship came home to roost in Sunday's hard-fought brawl which ended in the score of 7-5, both teams having gathered the total sum of six hits.

Like the bleak and blustery north-east gale that scurried over Menlo Park on Sunday, Narberth's monarchs of baseball swept through the series, originally scheduled for three games, and won undisputed claim to the championship by tripping the North Penn League commanders in the fastest played series this year. This was Narberth's fourth straight victory during the activities of the Buxmont and North Penn contests.

Narberth got off to a good start in Saturday's brawl to bunch ten hits for their five runs, while the visitors touched Graham for six bingles and scored their lone marker in the waning minutes of the battle, thus averting a shutout setback. John Mulligan put the locals in the scoring column early as he stepped to the disc and sent Hangey's first heave out into Windsor Avenue for a homeric blow. This four-master, however, was made possible by the left-fielder's poor fielding and, due to the fact that the ball was lost under a parked automobile, the blow would ordinarily have been a two-bagger.

An error gave the locals their second run in the fifth, while four nicks, a pass and another transgression meant two runs in the sixth. The champions again tabbed another in the seventh and Telford brought over their only run in the finale. B. Blank was Graham's fifth strikeout victim. R. Blank and Clemmer both doubled to right and left, respectively, the former counting off Clemmer's blow. Glick lofted to centre-field and Nyce reached the initial sack by virtue of Giffillan's error. P. Blank struck out.

A rabid throng of 800 fans, 500 of whom weathered the grueling thirty-five-mile trip to Telford in support of the Narberth champions, watched a much more tense conflict in which Narberth was fortunate to emerge triumphant. The feature of this game was the fifth inning batting orgy by both teams, which netted the Telford Bisons four runs, while the boroughites captured the game by bettering this melee by the margin of two runs. Heckle proved to be Narberth's most talented sticksmith for the two games when he led the pack in the

Egyptian "Talkies" Are Success; Win Praise

Large audiences marked the introduction to the Egyptian Theatre, Cynwyd, this week, of "talkies," reproduced by a $20,000 Western Electric sound system which was installed last week by P. J. Lawler, owner of the theatre. Fans from all over the Main Line, as well as from Bala-Cynwyd and Merion, heard the "Broadway Melody" Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and last night heard-saw the complete edition of "Fox Movie-tone Follies," which is showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Much favorable comment was occasioned by the perfect sound effects achieved by the new W. E. system.

Coming all-talking attractions booked by Manager Joseph Conway for the near future include "The Voice of the City," the first half of next week, with Willard Mack directing and starring; "Behind That Curtain," the much-praised mystery thriller, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, featuring Warner Baxter and Lois Moran, and later, Norma Shearer in the "Trial of Mary Dugan," Greta Garbo in the "Single Standard," William Boyd in the "Flying Fool," and the sensational hits, "Alibi" and "The Black Watch."

Announces Expansion Plan

Herbert J. Tily, of Cynwyd, president of Strawbridge and Clothier, who announced Saturday plans for an Ardmore store to be located on Montgomery Avenue.

Large Phila. Store Coming to Ardmore

Strawbridge & Clothier to Erect First Out-of-Town Unit.

Strawbridge and Clothier is coming to Ardmore. Announcement to this effect was made on Saturday by Dr. Herbert J. Tily, of Cynwyd, president of the company.

The Ardmore project, which is expected to co-ordinate the enlargement of the main store at Eighth and Market Streets, will be the first "outside of the city unit" in a program of expansion.

The site selected for the store is on Montgomery Avenue at St. James Place. This will link up St. Georges Road and Anderson Avenue into a traffic system, including the two chief arteries of the Main Line district, Montgomery and Lancaster Avenues.

The site has a frontage of 134 feet on Montgomery Avenue and 203 feet on St. James Place, running through to a seventy-five-foot street. The plans contemplate approximately 40,000 square feet of floor space. The structure will be of limestone, consistent in general appearance with the new central store in the city, and harmonious with the new developments adjacent to Montgomery Avenue.

Although no official announcement of the amount involved in the Ardmore store construction was made, it is believed this will approach the $1,000,000 mark.

The Ardmore site, the store officials stated, has been selected with view of easy access by automobile traffic and public conveyances from the entire Main Line district, and extensive free parking space is an important feature of the plan.

Work on the structure, which will be two and possibly three stories in height, will begin at once, according to Dr. Herbert J. Tily, president of the company, and should be ready for occupancy next spring.

The section where the new store is to be placed is growing rapidly, and other business organizations have already recognized the advantages of the location by establishing nearby.

The new Strawbridge and Clothier store will be directly controlled from the main offices in the city, with identical policies concerning delivery and charge accounts, so that customers may shop at either store.

"Modern conditions of living demand modern methods of merchandising if the public is to be provided with what it needs," said Dr. Tily in commenting on the announcement. "We feel this will be news of great interest, not only to the thousands of Strawbridge and Clothier customers living in the Main Line district, but also to the general public, because it confirms a trend in modern merchandising which has been attracting the attention of forward-looking merchants."

Rally Day the Third

Thursday, October 3, is Rally Day for the Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, from 10 to 4 o'clock. Every member is urged to come and bring a friend. All women of the congregation are cordially invited. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

All's Going Well at Borough School

Four Hundred and Thirty-six Enrolled; 270 Attend Lower Merion.

PLAN RADIO CONCERTS

Four hundred and thirty-six children are now enrolled in the Narberth School, according to figures given out by Principal George H. Wilson at the September meeting of the School Board on Monday night. In addition to these, 270 are enrolled at Lower Merion Junior and Senior High Schools, the expense of tuition of these being borne by the Narberth School district. Thus 706 children out of the 880 of school age in the borough are enrolled in either the Narberth or Lower Merion Schools.

The principal's report indicated that everything was going smoothly at the school. The teachers and even the pupils have evidenced their approval of the touching up the buildings received during the summer. The walls of many of the classrooms have been brightened up and present a far more cheerful appearance.

The appointment of Mrs. Caroline Brenner as teacher of the sixth and seventh grades, which had already been made, was confirmed by the Board. Mrs. Brenner is a teacher of many years' experience, several of them at Lower Merion, and the Board feels that she is a valuable addition to the staff.

It is expected that arrangements will be made to have the Walter Damrosch radio concerts received at the school for the benefit of the children. These concerts were received last year and are felt to be of considerable value in fostering musical appreciation.

Junior High Team Rounding Into Form

Coach Richard Mattis has rounded his Lower Merion Junior High football team into some semblance of form and has narrowed the first string squad down to twenty-two men. Peters, brother of Tip, of the Senior High team; Ryan and Johnson are beginning to show real ability in the back-field, along with Taylor, Talley, Hemsley, Mason and Buck. These eight boys will be divided into two back-fields and will share the heavy work of carrying the ball this season.

Staley, Shippen, Leidy and Graham, while not at all experienced, show signs of developing into dependable ends. Pollili, Henry, Saunders and Dunn are working at tackle and Bartlett, Hays and Slaughter at guard. DelPizzo gets the first call at centre this far, but he is closely pressed by Gaul and Titlow. Eight games have been arranged for with the following schools: Haverford, Lansdowne, Darby, Radnor, Upper Darby, Penn Charter, West Chester, Pottstown. The dates are not yet settled.

Scouts Win Badges

Twenty-nine merit badges were won by seventeen Boy Scouts at the first meeting of the Main Line Court of Honor last Friday night since spring. Harry Essley, of the Wynnewood troop, won his Eagle badge, the highest rank in scouting. John Snyder, also of the Wynnewood troop, won his Star scout badge, the second highest honor.

Troops represented were Rosemont, Wynnewood, Bryn Mawr, Merion, Ardmore No. 1 and No. 3. W. K. Holman acted as chairman of the Court of Honor.

Church Bowlers Invite Catholics to Join League; Withdraw M. E. Team to Make Room

That bowlers of St. Margaret's Roman Catholic Church here be invited to join the Narberth Interchurch Bowling League was the decision made at the league's annual election and meeting held Tuesday night in the Presbyterian Church. President H. C. Keim was authorized to communicate with members of the church and invite them to put a team in the league. The vote authorizing him to do so was unanimous.

On Wednesday night it was learned that St. Margaret Church bowlers accepted the invitation, and will enter their team in the race. In order to make room for the new team in the league the Methodist Church withdrew one of its three. In the league last year were the Methodist Meteors, Lutheran Lions, Meth-

Arthur L. Cook New Legion Commander

Election Takes Place Monday; Mowrer Describes State Convention.

DISCUSS HOUSING PLANS

Arthur L. Cook was elected commander of the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, at its annual election of officers held on Monday night at the Legion room of the Community Building, Windsor Avenue. He succeeds W. Russell Green, who has been the Post's pilot during the past year. Installation of officers will take place at the October meeting.

The following were also elected to office: William Fretz, first vice commander; Frank Schrofer, second vice commander; John A. Mowrer, Jr., adjutant; Roland Hewitt, finance officer; Executive Committee, Harry Simpson, Perry Redifer, Tom Kerrigan, John Nash and Allan Schubert.

An interesting account of the State Legion convention at Scranton was given by John Mowrer, official delegate. Next year's convention will be held at Harrisburg, at which time the dedication of the memorial bridge containing the names of all Pennsylvania men in the service will take place.

There was considerable discussion about the housing problem, and whether or not the Post should buy a home of its own. It was definitely decided that this matter was to be finally acted upon at the regular October meeting, October 28. The following committee was appointed by the commander, W. Russell Green, to investigate and report with recommendations: Chairman, Charles Greyer; Arthur L. Cook, Robert Collins, Henry Fry, Harry Simpson, Arthur Burns, John Mowrer, Roland Hewitt and William Fretz.

The members were greatly pleased to have with them Comrade Biddle, major of the Bugle and Drum Corps of the Houston Post, now living in Narberth, who spoke on the activities of Houston Post, which is one of the largest in the United States.

Mothers' Council First Meeting Called Monday

Its first meeting of the school year will be held by the Narberth Mothers' Council Monday, September 30, at 8 P. M. in the school library. Routine business will be discussed and plans will be made for the winter's activities. "We are entering our fourth year," declared one of the Council's officers this week, "with decided satisfaction, for the school and home have certainly been brought into a closer understanding. There are all kinds of clubs in which we can have a good time of an evening; but surely here in the Council we have all enjoyed the meetings, and we feel that something worth while has been accomplished."

"If you are interested in children and their happiness you will be most welcome at our meetings, whether or not you are a mother."

Oldest Air Student

To a Main Line man, Nathan H. Litchfield, of Montgomery Avenue, Haverford, went this week the honor of being the oldest student pilot in Philadelphia. Mr. Litchfield, who is 54, is taking a course at the Philadelphia Airport.

He is a former Narberth resident, and while living in the borough was much interested in "sandlot" baseball. His son, Wallace, is a student at Haverford, and a daughter, Dorothy, is a graduate of Bryn Mawr.

Wins High Honor

Miss Lelia Brodersen, Cynwyd, who was this week announced winner of the Bryn Mawr College scholarship given student making highest college entrance exam grades for Pennsylvania and Southern States.

New Shares of Stock Offered at Annual Meeting Next Tuesday.

Officers and directors will be elected at the annual meeting of stockholders of the Narberth American Legion Building and Loan Association, to be held 7 to 9 o'clock Tuesday evening at its headquarters, the office of the Narberth Coal Company, Haverford and Narberth Avenues. At that time also the twenty-second series of stock will be opened.

Earnings of the association for the past year, according to its financial statement published this week, were 8.91 per cent., as compared with last year's profit of 8.83 per cent. The assets are nearing $300,000.

During the past year the seventh and eighth double series were matured, after seventy-eight monthly payments. The four double series matured to date have all been in this time. Another series will be matured in November in the same record time, of six and a half years.

The popularity of the double shares has increased during the association's nine years of growth, and a banner series is anticipated with the opening of the new series Tuesday night. Both double and single shares will be issued at that time. Payments for single shares are one dollar per month per share and twenty-five cents entrance fee, and for the double shares two dollars per month per share, plus fifty cents per share entrance fee.

Officers of the Legion Building and Loan Association who will come up for re-election Tuesday are Alexander C. Shand, Jr., president; Colonel I. A. Miller, vice president; Harry A. Simpson, secretary; Horace T. Smedley, treasurer, and Walter M. Burkhardt, solicitor.

Tuesday, October 8, has been set as the time for the annual meeting of the Narberth Community Library Association, to be held 7:30 P. M. that day in the library. Reports of officers and committees will be given, and three members of the Board of Trustees are to be elected.

Porch Roof Flames

Damage estimated at $150 resulted from a fire in the wood-shingle porch roof of Charles H. Bartlett, 131 Merion Avenue, last Saturday. The fire siren sounded at 10:30 A. M. and the Narberth Fire Company extinguished the blaze shortly afterwards.

Its September meeting was held by the Narberth Fire Company Tuesday night at Elm Hall.

Recreation Board's Plan Twice Approved

Action of School Board Confirms Interpretation of Powers and Functions.

WILL PREPARE A BUDGET

The Recreation Board of the borough of Narberth is no longer a hit-or-miss body with intangible functions and no responsibilities. Since its reorganization last spring the recreation program has been revitalized, and a plan defining the Board's powers, duties and relations to Council and the School Board has been worked out and accepted by the Board.

The plan was made effective on Monday night when the School Board adopted a resolution, similar to that passed by Council recently, approving and confirming the Recreation Board's interpretation of its functions and relationships.

According to its plan of operation the Recreation Board assumes responsibility for the development of recreational facilities in the borough as well as for the supervision of grounds and buildings which it had formerly done. The Board intends to prepare a budget covering all of its desirable and needed expenses for the equipment, maintenance and operation of the playgrounds, this budget to be submitted to Council and the School Board for them to appropriate sums sufficient to meet the budget.

The following plan of organization and operation is a part of the report of the committee of the Recreation Board, prepared by Kenneth L. M. Pray, with the approval of John R. Hall and William H. Fretz, fellow-committeemen, and the assistance of the Burgess, Henry A. Frye.

Plan of Organization and Operation.

I. That the Recreation Board, is, and was intended to be, the active responsible arm of the borough government for the guidance, supervision and administration of the public recreation facilities; that its powers and functions extend not merely to the supervision of the use of grounds and buildings upon the request or initiative of others, but also to the active initiation of plans for the development of recreation facilities, and the direct execution of such projects as command the approval and financial support of those bodies that have the power to appropriate money for the purpose; that though the Board be dependent upon Council and the School Board for financial support, expenditures for recreation purposes (as distinct from the ordinary cost of maintenance of the Community Building, such as heat, light and janitor service) should be planned, approved and authorized in detail by the Board, which should thus stand responsible to the community for the expenditures thus incurred or proposed, in order that the recreation program as a whole may be known to, and judged by, the citizens of Narberth, and may be developed with their understanding, co-operation and support.

II. That the following procedure and method of operation shall be followed by the Board, in the discharge of these responsibilities:

a. That this Board shall annually prepare an itemized budget for next ensuing year of expenditures deemed desirable and necessary for the proper equipment, maintenance and operation

Air-Minded Young Men Seek to Form Flying Club

An attempt is being made by "air-minded" young men along the Main Line to form a flying club. The movement centres around Merion and Narberth at present and has as its prime mover Robert B. Reinhardt, Jr., of Heath Road, Merion.

The club will be affiliated with the A. S. P. A., American Society for the Promotion of Aviation, of which Reinhardt is a member. Literature of the A. S. P. A. is on hand and will be gladly sent to anyone interested.

The club's aim will be to gather within its membership all in the section who are interested in aviation, procure instruction in the rudiments of flying and, when sufficient funds are available, to acquire a small flying field.

It is the director's opinion that in the near future the town which lacks an airport or flying field will be as out of date as the town without any of the common transportation facilities of the present. All who are interested in the project are cordially invited to get in touch with Robert Reinhardt,

The FIRESIDE

(By E. E. E.)

Speaking of unusual parties (or didn't you hear our discussion?) the one which the Sunshine Bible Class of the Methodist Church was given Tuesday evening surely was an intriguing affair. Mrs. Ralph E. Hoyle, the president, was hostess to the group at their first fall meeting, at her home, 11 Windsor Avenue. Mrs. Hoyle arranged the affair, which was a backwards party—invitations necessitated the use of mirrors in order to be understood—guests wore their dresses front side-to-the-rear, and had to walk, and talk, backwards.

The informal supper which was served later in the evening, after most of the guests had been penalized a penny, or many pennies, for forgetting the rules, was not in the order that Emily Post would advise. First on the menu came the toothpicks; the ice cream was served in soup plates and, all in all (if we may be permitted the use of the trite expression), the entire affair was a "genu" success, if you know what we mean.

The idea was a clever one, don't you think?—and next month the Bible class will have a phantom party, which no doubt will be equally interesting. The guests present Tuesday included Mrs. Etta Walker, Mrs. Helen Simons, Mrs. Charles Grever, Mrs. Betty Rickabaugh, Mrs. Robert Compton, Mrs. Clarke Miller, Mrs. H. A. Bawden, Mrs. Rufus VanSant, Mrs. Betty Martin, Mrs. Vera Moore, Mrs. Samuel Wilson, Miss Anne Scott, Miss Gertrude Parkhill, Miss M. A. Gier and Miss Sue Baker.

Another party we heard of this week—one especially enjoyable at this season of the year—was the corn roast which Mrs. Frederick Kuebler, Jr., 25 Narbrook Park, gave Saturday afternoon in honor of her young niece, Marie Neville, and to which several of the children of the park and vicinity were invited.

The actual season for parties has not begun, for, as we mentioned before, many boroughites have so recently returned from summer vacations that they are devoting most of the time to getting settled for the winter, but we did hear of a small get-together luncheon which Mrs. Hugh B. Speed, 127 Chestnut Avenue, gave yesterday for her attractive daughter Anne, who, you know, has recently returned after summering in San Antonio, Texas. The guests included Miss Margaret Gibbons and Miss Dorothy Russell, of Cynwyd; Miss Ellen Shaw and Miss Mary Miller Crest, of Merion; Miss Hope Burlingame and Miss Betty Swing, of Bryn Mawr; and Miss Honora Snyder, of Narberth. All of these girls will leave within a week or so for school, and so this was a most opportune time to have a "talk-fest." Several of the younger girls, that is, the younger college girls, met at Ellen Shaw's home in Merion Wednesday for an informal afternoon of discussion.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Woolmington entertained at dinner at their home in Narbrook Park, when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hann, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Parker, of Norristown; and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Richter, of West Philadelphia.

This week-end Mrs. William Bartlett, 10 Elmwood Avenue, will entertain at a small house party at her Avalon cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leins, Jr., of Meeting House Lane, took a motor trip to Boston last week. Mrs. Leins has as her guest this week Mrs. George McCrea and her two children, from Cynwyd. Mr. Leins is motoring this week through Virginia with Mr. and Mrs. John Albrecht, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albrecht.

Did you hear that Mr. and Mrs. J. Folwell Scull, Jr., have returned from their wedding trip in Bermuda and are occupying their apartment on City Line at Bala Avenue? Mrs. Scull, you know, was Miss Adele Wyeth before her recent marriage.

A wedding of interest here was that of Miss Elizabeth Weaver Metzger and Mr. Francis M. Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Leslie Lambert, 612 Shady Lane, which took place very quietly Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Metzger, in Media. The Rev. John Van Ness, pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, officiated. Upon their return from a wedding trip Mr. Lambert and his bride will live on Narberth Avenue. Both are graduates of the Narberth High School, as Mrs. Lambert lived in the borough with her parents before moving to Media several years ago.

Many people here will miss Mrs. Andrew Greene and family, 5 Chestnut Avenue, when they leave to join Mr. Greene in Chicago to make their home. Mr. Greene's business keeps him in the western city a great deal of the time, so his wife and family are making arrangements to leave for there within a few weeks.

The L. Parker Millers have returned to their home on Dudley Avenue from Ocean City, where they spent the summer, and we hear that Mrs. H. C. Penno has returned home from the Adirondacks, where she spends her summers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Raymond Kaerber, Jr., Windsor Avenue, have returned from a fortnight's vacation which was spent motoring through the ever-delightful New England States and the shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Elwood, formerly of Bala, are occupying their new apartment on Sabine Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ballingall, 511 Haverford Avenue, are among the many who enjoy the seashore at this time of the year. We heard that they were recent guests at the Seaside Hotel in Atlantic City.

Mrs. William C. Claghorn, of Chestnut Avenue, visited her mother in Ocean City this week.

Mrs. John W. Joyce, 11 Narbrook Park, was in New York for several days this week.

Miss Betty Bartle, of Ardmore, is giving a dance this evening at her home, when her guests will include many members of her class—that is the freshman class—at Lower Merion. Several of the younger people from here are going.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Darville, who, you know, moved recently from their home at the corner of Essex and Narberth Avenues to Wynnewood, have returned from a stay at Skytop Lodge, in the Poconos.

Most of the younger girls were glad to hear of the return to Merion of Mary Miller Crest, who left these parts a year or so ago for California.

Attorney W. Russell Green, of Narberth, was a guest at the luncheon given Governor Fisher last Saturday at the Spring Mountain House, Schwenksville, which marked the dedication of the John F. Fisher State Game Farm.

Miss Ethel E. Shaw, of the teachers' college at Bloomsburg, Pa., was a week-end guest of her brother, Commander C. H. Shaw, at his home, 114 Avon Road. She left this week for Columbia University, where she will take special courses for a degree.

Elwood and Clyde Richardson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Ross Richardson, Valley View Road, Merion, left recently for the University of Alabama, where Clyde is commencing his first year, and Elwood his second.

Captain Gerald M. Tomblin, Mrs. Tomblin and their son Tim were visitors in Narberth this week as guests of friends. The Tomblins resided here several years ago. For the past seven years they have been in Cairo, Egypt. Their present home is in Rutherford, N. J.

Mrs. L. M. Leonard, who has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. R. Richardson, 514 Valley View Road, Merion, returned Tuesday to her home in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Cutler, of Moorestown, N. J., visited friends in Narberth this week.

UNCLE CY'S COLUMN

Hash.

Isn't it great that we know that John Coolidge and Miss Trumbull are married? The suspense was awful.

The police may be foiled in finding Whiteside's slayer, but they may look for me when they find the body of the man who says: "I don't see how a man of your intelligence, education and experience can hold such a view."

Harry Sinclair wants to be released from prison. He says it is neither business nor ill health that prompts his request. I suspect that he wants to see some of his horses run at Havre de Grace. Can you blame him?

Aunt Cy told me this morning that she would have two old school friends for dinner and over night. I thought myself rather clever to plead a dinner engagement in town, but I discovered that that was exactly what she wanted me to do. It's barely possible that the presence of a man might deflect the accurate aim of these huffesses at their harpoon parties.

People have peculiar ways of expressing affection. I know a man who always makes the most grossly insulting remarks to his dearest friends and the people he loves best. They understand and reply in kind, but the air isn't pleasant to casual acquaintances or strangers. On the contrary, women are apt to speak in superlative compliments to other women for whom they do not know that there are speak-easies for they never patronize them. They believe that there is no drunkenness because they are never in the places where it might be seen. These people amuse me as much as they make me tired. They are either confounded asses, braying to distract public attention, or misguided ostriches with their heads and optical organs buried deep in the dry sand.

Some day someone of them will have his eyes opened with a terrific jolt and the front pages will scream for days thereafter; we shall have a temporary cleaning up, after the fashions of General Butler, Judge Monahan, et al., and soon we shall return to the point where those who want to obey a law restricting individual appetite will do so, and those who don't will move heaven and earth to discover new ways to evade or avoid it.

Oh, well, you start an argument? All the talking and controversy won't have very little use. If absolute sincerity and simplicity could be practiced by everyone, wouldn't life become richer and infinitely more pleasant?

Last Saturday I had dinner at Elkton with several other men on our way to somewhere or other, and the sight of the ministers' signs filled me with a sort of nausea. If ever there was a prostitution of what should be a noble profession, it is there. I wonder if any of the runaway Elkton marriages are successful and whether they really contribute any stability or happiness to society? A clergyman friend of mine said recently that if he had the revising of the law he would make it extremely easy to obtain a divorce, and tremendously difficult to be married. He believes that there would be far fewer divorces, and I think he's right. Can any reader of this column justify the indecent conduct of the Elkton ministers?

There is a lot of bubbling in the papers recently anent prohibition. I once vouchsafed a few thoughts about it here, and perhaps I should let sleeping dogs lie. The thought I have today is that most of the reformers and many of the legislators assume that the country is dry because they do not drink themselves and their friends hide the cocktail shakers as soon as they hear or see them approach. Similarly they do not know that liquor is sold because they never try to buy any, change human nature.

No person shall sell ice cream either at wholesale or retail in the Borough of Narberth without first making application to and obtaining from the Board of Health a license to make such sales. Such application shall set forth the name of the applicant, together with the location of the place or places in the Borough of Narberth at which sales will be made, the name and location of any ice cream plant from which the applicant proposes to obtain ice cream, and such other information as may be required by the Board of Health; such application to constitute an agreement between the applicant and the Board of Health, for the faithful compliance by the applicant and all agents, servants, employees or representatives of the applicant with all ordinances and regulations of the Board of Health now in effect or hereafter adopted relating to the manufacture and sale of ice cream. The applicant shall promptly inform the Board of Health in writing of any and all changes in the source of the supply of ice cream. For the issuance of any such license no charge shall be made. Unless previously revoked or suspended such license shall expire as of the first day of June following its issuance, at or prior to which time application shall be made for renewal of all such licenses for a further period of twelve months.

ARTICLE III—INSPECTIONS

Rule 1. Any duly authorized representative of the Board of Health shall, as often as the Board may deem necessary, visit and inspect each ice cream plant or other place where ice cream intended for sale in the Borough of Narberth is manufactured or sold, and each place where cream, milk or milk products used in the manufacture of ice cream intended for sale in the Borough of Narberth is produced, handled, pasteurized or stored, whether such ice cream plant or other place is located within or outside the limits of the Borough of Narberth for the purpose of ascertaining whether the ordinance of the Borough of Narberth and rules and regulations of the Board of Health now in effect or hereafter adopted, are complied with. If from any inspection it is found by such representative that any such ordinance or rules and regulations are not being complied with or if such representative is refused access to any such place or is not allowed to make a complete and detailed inspection thereof, such representative shall immediately certify such fact or facts to the Board of Health and, after hearing, before the Board of Health, of which any licensee affected shall be given notice, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, revoke such license or licenses; provided, however, that any license may be suspended temporarily without hearing, whenever the Board of Health may deem such action necessary.

ARTICLE IV—SANITARY REQUIREMENTS

Rule 1. No ice cream shall be sold or manufactured for sale in the Borough of Narberth unless the same has been produced, manufactured, handled and stored in all respects in a clean, wholesome and sanitary manner, and so as to prevent contamination. Any buildings so used shall be well lighted and ventilated, and openings to the outer air shall be effectively screened. Cellar and basements shall not be used in the manufacture or handling of ice cream except by permission of the Board of Health. Adequate toilet facilities shall be provided and shall be located in a manner satisfactory to the Board of Health. An abundant supply of hot and cold water of a safe, sanitary quality shall be provided. All equipment, utensils and other articles used in connection with the manufacture, handling or sale of ice cream shall be kept in good order and repair, and constructed to drain properly, shall be free and clean from dirt, and sterilized and stored by methods satisfactory to the Board of Health. All persons who shall engage in any manner in the manufacture, handling or sale of ice cream shall be clean in person and subject to medical examination from time to time as the Board of Health may prescribe.

ARTICLE V—INGREDIENTS

Rule 1. All cream, milk or milk products used in the manufacture of ice cream shall conform to the requirements set forth in the ordinances of the Borough of Narberth and rules and regulations of the Board of Health now in effect or hereafter adopted.

Rule 2. All ingredients other than cream, milk and milk products used in the manufacture of ice cream shall conform to the standards prescribed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and, where such standards are not applicable to the requirements of the Federal Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906, and all amendments and supplements of the same.

Germs Were Myth to Many When Dr. Dixon, Bryn Mawr, Launched State Health Measures

Recent spectacular raids of State officials on Montgomery County pigeries, culminating in proceedings before the Court, again direct attention to the wide powers accorded the State Department of Health under the act creating it, passed in 1907. That act was so sweeping that it caused consternation among the large proportion of the State's population to whom germs were a myth and sanitary methods just passing fads of the doctors. It was a Montgomery County resident whom Governor Pennypacker named to put the drastic health legislation of 1905 into effect. And it was in a Montgomery County case that the Courts once and for all time established the constitutionality of the unusual powers given to the health department.

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, of Bryn Mawr, scientist of world-wide fame and noted for his researches with regard to tuberculosis, was Pennsylvania's first health commissioner. He held the office until his death, in 1918, and he gave Pennsylvania high distinction in that time for the successful application of its health regulations and the control of disease.

First Dr. Dixon set about to create a public sentiment in favor of the new regulations. He realized that if he immediately undertook rigid enforcement he would arouse strong opposition. He began by appointing health officers to cover every part of the State. These officers were to familiarize the people with the right methods of drainage, dealing with communicable disease, cleanliness in homes and factories and so on.

Even with careful preparation it was difficult in many districts to induce the people to submit to quarantines for diphtheria and scarlet fever, much less for measles. Resistance was also encountered when public funerals were discouraged where death had occurred from communicable disease.

First, attention, Dr. Dixon felt, must be given to check the contamination of streams from which supplies of drinking water were obtained. For years all kinds of offensive fluids had been permitted to flow into the nearest stream. Those responsible regarded any interference by the State authorities as unwarranted intrusion.

The first test was made in the case of a Royersford mill employing 150 men. The mill was on the banks of the Schuylkill and drainage flowed directly into the stream. Dr. Dixon first warned the owner of the mill to correct the trouble. The notice was disregarded. Then the man was arrested and tried in Court in Norristown. He was convicted and fined $25.

Though the punishment was trifling, his attorney carried the case to the Superior Court and then to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, contending that the new health regulations were contrary both to the constitution of Pennsylvania and the constitution of the United States. Both of the higher Courts upheld the health laws and the power they gave the health authorities.

As the public became accustomed to the new ways Dr. Dixon from time to time promulgated new regulations in harmony with discoveries of science. Again he ran counter to established prejudice when in 1913 he banned the common drinking cup, the common towel and the common hair brush in barber shops, the latter being permissible only if disinfected every time it was used.

But Dr. Dixon did not content himself with prohibition. He sought to preserve health as well as to keep out sickness. Through his help tuberculosis clinics, baby clinics, health centres and other agencies were established throughout the State, resulting in immeasurable good in many a community.

Volunteer Staff at Library Give Farewell Party For Mrs. Cappel

Mrs. Howard Cappel was the guest of honor at a farewell tea, which was attended by twenty members of the volunteer staff of the library, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth K. Wood, on Forrest Avenue, recently. It was the first time that such a large number of the members of the volunteer staff had been together since the days when, before the appointment of the paid librarian, monthly staff meetings were held regularly at the library.

Mrs. Cappel and her husband will leave Narberth soon for New York City, where a promotion for Mr. Cappel makes it necessary for them to reside in the future. For several years Mrs. Cappel was a member of the group who had charge of the library every Monday. The other two members of that group were Mrs. Harry Derby and Mrs. William B. Goodall, who, with Mrs. Cappel, received the guests at the tea.

The members of the staff quickly revealed that they had not grown rusty in their knowledge of the details of the library when they were assigned the task to "guggenheim" the alphabet with names of objects at the library. Many members of the group were able to fill in every letter, although, it must be confessed, that some of the papers disclosed a distinctly humorous turn. Mrs. C. T. Faries and Mrs. E. C. Drew assisted the hostess in serving. It was agreed by all that "the old staff" as it is coming to be called is just as successful as a social organization, providing entertainment for itself as it used to be when as a group of serious-minded, punctual workers it provided library service for the people of Narberth.

Muschamp's Audubon Book Is at Library Here

Among the new books purchased this month by the library, the one certain to attract local interest is "Audacious Audubon," written by Edward A. Muschamp, of Woodside Avenue. Mr. Muschamp is well known in Narberth and his book has already received considerable attention from literary editors and reviewers. He has made a careful study of the life of Audubon and has assembled his facts in an interesting manner, presenting for the reader a delightful account of a varied and dramatic life.

FORE AND AFT

An announcement of particular interest to music lovers was made this week. The Philadelphia Civic Opera Company will present the entire Ring of the Nibelungen this season. The dates are as follows: Das Rheingold, November 21; Die Walkure, December 12; Siegfried, January 9; Die Gotterdammerung, January 16.

The performances will be given in German and the company promises a long list of famous artists. Bruennhilde, for instance, will be sung alternately by Florence Austral and Elsa Alsen, and Georges Baklanoff, renowned baritone, will sing the role of Wotan.

Considerable impetus was given last winter to the "Ring" by the performances here of the German Opera Company. Despite a cramped stage and a small orchestra the effects produced by the sincerity and singing ability of this company were considerable. I for one recall their performance of Die Walkure with Gaski as Bruennhilde, with unalloyed enthusiasm.

Alexander Smallens, the fiery young conductor, who was recently appointed assistant conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, will lead the orchestra, consisting of fifty-five members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, at the Civic Opera's presentations of the Ring.

While Philadelphia languishes without any legitimate drama, the Main Line is fortunate in having at its doorstep such admirable performances as the Hedgerow Company is giving at Berwyn. Next Wednesday "Arms and the Man," that ironical and mirth-provoking comedy of George Bernard Shaw, is the offering at the Little Theatre.

In this play the author is concerned with a civilization that likes to think of itself as advanced and which still perpetrates such barbarities as war and exaggerated class distinctions. The Shavian barbs divest the soldier of his militarism, the fine lady of her illusory veneer and the servant girl of her servility. Shaw cracks the shell of class distinction and proves that all men are brothers under the surface. A soldier, who amid the throes of war, prefers chocolate creams to loaded rifles, proves himself to be basically more courageous than the army officer of high phrases and patriotic mien, while the fine lady and the servant meet at last on the common ground of romantic rivalry.

Having missed the Hedgerow performance of "Thunder on the Left" at Berwyn, I set out to make good that omission by attending the performance at Hedgerow's lair in Rose Valley last Saturday evening. Inasmuch as the Hedgerow Theatre does not believe in spoiling the natural beauty of their location with advertising signs, one either knows the way or one stumbles on it. I did the latter. (After a couple of visits, however, you are fairly certain of making the theatre in time for the second act.)

I have only good words for the performance. The acting brought out all the witfulness and tenuous beauty of the play. The dramatization, it might be added, takes no liberties with Mr. Morley's novel, and in the opinion of the Hedgerow director, Mr. Deeter, actually improves on it in spots.

After the performance my companion and I had the pleasure of a personally-conducted tour of inspection of the theatre, visiting the dressing rooms, the property rooms, the stage scenery and an offstage glimpse of the actors and actresses, who are a most charming and interesting group of young men and women.

Narberth Gains Double Win For Phila. Suburban Title

first contest with three hits out of four trips to the plate for a fine average of .750. In the second contest he only came through with a pair, but his double in the fifth gave the Davismen two runs while he made prolific his own bingle by crossing off Martin's nick, thus contributing three of the seven points registered by the club. Heckle's pell-mell rally with the mace during the activities of the series enabled him to tie Gillfillan for batting laurels for the 1929 season.

The Main Line champs went scoreless for a pair of innings and then tabbed a run in the third when Mulligan, who started the scoring in Saturday's game, knocked a hard double into right-field to score Thomas from the Keystone. Telford emulated this piece of work in the fourth, and then both clubs went into a mad batting spree in the subsequent, the margin of two runs earned in this inning giving the men of Davis the right to the Philadelphia Suburban championship.

Johnny Curwin batted first in the fifth and was the last man up when Narberth resolved to end hostilities. In his primary appearance he grounded out to Hangey and Thomas strolled. Durbin singled to left-field and when Mulligan ambled the bases were all occupied. Thomas was onsted at the plate on Burns' bid for a single and Heckle doubled to left-field, scoring Durbin and Mulligan. Babb reached first when R. Blank muffed his grounder, Burns counting from the transgression. Jeffries also made the initial bag on the first baseman's blunder and Babb and Jeffries cantered over the plate off Martin's one-bagger. Curwin, who batted again this frame, flied to left-field.

Telford staged a surprising rally in the alien half of the fifth when they put together a pair of doubles, a pass and took advantage of Jeffries' error and Durbin's wildness to score two runs shy of the local mark. Regli grounded to Babb, but was safe on first when Jeffries tried to make a showy catch of the assist. Shoemaker struck out and Glick ambled. Weigner's admittance to base was made possible due to Durbin's unsteadiness and the bases were loaded. R. Blank crashed a timely two-ply shot to left-field to score Regli and Glick, and Brother Blank immediately followed suit with another double to left-field, sending Weigner and R. Blank scurrying over the disc. Clemmer sent out a sacrificial nick, but Nyce fell on strikes.

Durbin tightened up considerably as the game progressed and refused to allow a single hit, while the home club took access to a pair of hits. "Bill" and his mound rival Glick each struck out five men, but Glick also walked five players, while Durbin only per-mited three to get on via the walk route.

Correct Address Essential to Get New Tags Promptly

If you wish to avoid trouble and delay in getting your 1930 automobile tags by sure that the State Department of Revenue, Bureau of Motor Vehicles, has your correct address.

This was the admonition this week of Ernest W. Tallman, general manager of the Automobile Club of Philadelphia, who recalled the fact that there were thousands of automobile owners last December who had trouble obtaining their new tags, and many hundreds who paid fines after midnight December 31 because they did not have new tags.

"Automobile owners who have changed their place of residence since they last received a communication from the department of revenue should send their correct address immediately to the department in Harrisburg to avoid trouble and delay and the inability to use their automobiles after December 31 until new tags come in," Mr. Tallman said. "Post office authorities have been advised by the department not to forward departmental mail, but to return it to Harrisburg when the person addressed is not at the original address. If the department has not been notified, the mail then is held in Harrisburg until the automobile owner does notify the department of his new address."

New Victor Model Here

The Victor radio R-52, latest addition to the Victor radio field, has been secured by R. J. Threlfall, manager of J. Richard Shryock's Narberth store, for display and sale at 233 Haverford Avenue. The newest of the three Victor radio models is a micro-synchronous set in a more elaborate cabinet than has been available before now. According to Mr. Threlfall the radio has received praise at special demonstrations this week for its beauty of design and perfection of tone.

"There can be no substitute for the great department store centrally located in large cities, because only in such establishments can be carried the complete stocks of goods, the great varieties of styles and the wide range of services to which customers of today have been educated.

"We believe that the advantages of such stores will never be superseded, and our best testimony to that fact is the great new building we are now erecting at Eighth and Market Streets.

"On the other hand, we recognize there is a growing demand for stores in outlying sections which will carry a stock of specialized lines to meet the varying requirements of people living in such neighborhoods.

"It is because Strawbridge and Clothier believe this to be a natural and logical extension of the present-day scheme of merchandise distribution that we are going into the field. In our Ardmore store we shall aim to carry a grade of goods which will be most favored by Main Line residents, and shall make special study of the buying needs of the community."

b. That the Board submit this budget to each of the tax-raising and tax-dispensing bodies, Borough Council and School Board, with a request to each to appropriate a specific sum of money, sufficient in the aggregate to meet the budget submitted.

c. That these appropriations be made payable upon requisition of the proper officers of the Recreation Board, accompanied by properly audited and approved bills.

d. That all employees be employed and supervised by the Recreation Board and paid from appropriations allocated for this purpose, excepting as the Recreation Board may unite with the School Board in employing jointly a director of physical education and recreation, who shall, however, during the summer months, be under the supervision and direction of the Recreation Board.

e. That the Recreation Board shall draw up and submit, for approval of Borough Council and School Board, and for subsequent publication to the citizens of the borough, such necessary rules and regulations for the care and use of recreation grounds and buildings as may be necessary or desirable, such rules and regulations to be subject to, and to include, any present and permanent understandings, contracts or agreements with respect to such care and use.

f. That the Recreation Board shall

g. That this plan subject to such changes from time to time as may be deemed wise or necessary to meet changing conditions shall form the basis of annual budget requests for annual appropriations and plans for activity, it being the purpose of the Board to recommend the realization of the plan gradually, bringing such parts to consummation in any year as seem feasible and desirable under the circumstances.

h. That the Recreation Board prepare and submit to Borough Council and to the School Board, and publish for the information of citizens an annual report of the operations and accomplishments of the year's program, with a detailed statement of the financial expenditures incurred under appropriations of Council and the School Board or paid from other sources, in such form that it may be made available for the use of the auditors, in their annual audit of borough and school district finances.

i. That the Recreation Board solicit the advice and assistance of competent leaders in this field in the management of all its activities, and ask the co-operation of borough and school authorities, to the end that all recreation plans or projects, involving the use of public property or the co-operation of public authorities, be referred to the Recreation Board for consideration and report before being authorized or entered upon.

j. That it be the avowed purpose and policy of the Recreation Board so to conduct its tasks and discharge its responsibilities that every citizen and organization in the borough may enjoy and freely use on equal terms, so far as circumstances permit, the public recreation resources and facilities of the borough.

Note—The remainder of this report, dealing with the legal origin and authority of the Board, its relationship to Council and the School Board and its financial status, will be published in future issues of Our Town. Its length does not permit publication in one issue.—The Editor.
